

The Conference You Don't Want to Miss

Reserve a table for your company.

Back for a third year, the Small Business Matters Conference — a gathering of hundreds of business leaders — is known for top-quality speakers and clever entertainment. Returning to the Cobb Galleria Center on Friday, May 15, this year's conference is shaping up to be the best ever.

The conference addresses the complex needs of today's business executives, making it a superb networking and marketing opportunity for your company. You can reserve eight seats at your company's table. Two additional seats will be filled by a discussion facilitator and one of the highlighted speakers.

As a table sponsor of this daylong celebration of small businesses, your company will be seen as a leader in the community as you build relationships with your colleagues or customers.

"This conference was different that any other I attended. Participation was effortless and I look forward to this year's event. Impressive all around."

— Mike Iverson, Trillium Financial,
two-time Small Business Matters Conference sponsor
